So quickly do the seasons pass,
the falling leaves
the sprouting grass
the warmth of a summer's day
the snowflakes as they blow away.
These the things that we'll remember the crispness of a cool September and freshest June, an early spring
the Christmas bells in steeples ring
the seasons that were all our own.
Our high school days will soon be gone but memories will linger on

IN DEDICATION . . .

We, the editors of the 1965 Oriole, on behalf of the student body, do dedicate our yearbook to Phillip C. Hartman, who has served the community as principal of Ludington High School for 20 years, and as a teacher for many more.

He has been a leader and guide for many young people, who have, by their success in life, reflected the work of this fine educator and personal friend.

COOKS

Each day the students who eat at the cafeteria are greeted with a variety of delicious looking and tasting food. This is accomplished by the hard working cooks each day as they work to please the varying tastes of the students yet provide a well balanced meal.

CUSTODIANS

A custodian is a little bit of everything rolled into one. A custodian is a plumber, a carpenter, locksmith, gardener, housekeeper, and whatever else the situation might demand. These men are dedicated and reliable. We have the custodians to thank for the excellent conditions existing at L.H.S.

BUS DRIVERS

Through rain or shine, sleet or snow the bus drivers manage to make their way on the routes in order to get the students to school.

Besides their daily routes many of the bus drivers drive the buses on the trips of the various clubs.

LIBRARY IN ACTION

Wake me up if she comes past. She caught me sleeping in here once already.

Junior girls flip through the latest magazines.

Actually, I'm not looking for anything but the jokes.

Let me see . . . did she return it or didn't she?

He's watching me!!! I just know it!

What comes first, "e" or "i"? I can't remember.

Our journey is near an end - -
We stop.
Reluctant to proceed - -
We gaze back.
What do we see?

I remember now. I remember now. . . . . .

There we stood — SENIORS!
Our school rings . . .
Our Senior pictures . . .
Our class motto . . .

I remember now.
This was our year.
Our yearbook . . .
Our newspaper . . .
Our parties . . .
We had reached the top of the ladder.
We were editors . . .
We were captains . . .
We were chairmen . . .

We were the SENIORS.

We engaged in new activities.
Honor Society . . .
Senior Play . . .
Queen and Her Court . . .
There were new disappointments.
Term papers . . .
College boards . . .
Rejections . . .
New achievements.
Scholarships . . .
A basketball trophy . . .
Acceptances . . .
Old traditions.
The SCHOOL song . . .
Senior Day
Graduation . . .

And now it is ended.
Now we embark on a new road.

We have bid our good-byes . . .
Our teachers — our friends.
Some happily — some sadly.
And now . . .

Ludington . . . . . we bid you farewell!

FOREIGN

Harry, Ina, and Kris get acquainted with American school life.

This year's foreign exchange students compare the United States with European countries.

Alicia and Ryan sell tags to raise money for the foreign exchange.

In their Finish dresses Lorree and Margaret demonstrate the Finjanka.

EXCHANGE

The student body of L.H.S. has whole-heartedly supported foreign exchange for the past few years. Last year their contributions helped send 8 students to Europe. These included Alicia Berger, Ireland; Ron Pederson, Sweden; Lorree Lewis, Paul Danielson, Margaret Gustafson, Finland; Ryon Haywood, Germany; Quentin Reader, the Netherlands; and Jack Cronenwett, Spain.

Foreign Exchange is financed in part by tag day sales, dances, and free contributions from students and community organizations. This year for the first time the foreign exchange students formed a club, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Olmstead.

Foreign exchange students in L.H.S. this year are Chris Schoultz, Sweden; Ina Schultz, Germany; and Harry DeBoer from the Netherlands.

Quent helps Alicia try on his shoes from Holland.

Students chosen this year are: Brian Olmstead, Janet Wadel, Cathy Coyle, Joan Jorissen, Sherry Bohjanen, and Clay Olmstead.

WINTER WHIRL

"Winter Medley" was the theme of the 1964 annual formal dancesponsored by the Tri-Hi-Y. Two hundred fifty couples enjoyed their evening dancing to the music of Glen Sullivan and his orchestra.

Although this year a change in tradition took place and the Winter Whirl was held about a week before vacation, the Christmas atmosphere was still complete. Santa's sleigh, in the color theme red and silver, was suspended from the ceiling of the O. J. DeJonge Junior High School. Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer complete with a red flashing light, a huge Santa Claus, and a Christmas tree with brightly decorated packages under it helped to convey the theme. Song titles and snowflakes with the names of each couple on them were hung on the walls. After the dance they were taken home as mementos. Officers, chaperones, and Mrs. Colvin greeted the couples at the entrance.

Refreshments consisting of cookies and punch were served throughout the evening.

The 1964 Winter Whirl will be reminisced with fond and gay memories and will be one event of LHS that will be long remembered!

Helen and Jim try "those cute little cookies."

"Up go the snowflakes"

Paulette, Dave, Brian, and Donna chat with Santa.

WKLA

Couples dance to the old favorites at Winter Melody.

Mrs. Schierholt, Marilyn, and Mary prepare the refreshment table.

"We'll remember the Winter Whirl. It will be another golden memory of our high school years."

Stevenson Pontiac

CANDIDS

10:10
Sally, Don and Bill put together our Christmas tree . . . er, Sally, don't be afraid. Don won't really spear you.

10:11 That's better. Ah, what did yu say? one, two, cha-cha-cha?

We will win tonight because $T = 2\pi\sqrt{\frac{L}{g}}$
That's what Mr. Flickenger taught me.

Rah. Mr. C.!

Teddy bear . . .

Ain't that the berries, I forgot!

The Ludington High School Choir, directed by Mr. Irving Prescott, is just one of the many sources of pride found in L.H.S. The group has attained a high level of achievement for a high school group by serving not only its students, but also the public as well.

The choir participates in a Community Choral Group Oratorio, provides a musical program for County Teachers Institute, presents a Christmas concert assembly program for L.H.S. and also takes a spring singing trip to Chicago. The choir is also the sponsor of high school dances, baked goods sales, and car washes.
